From Colonel Paul A. Pride, Superintendent

Subject Ohio State Highway Patrol 85th Anniversary Celebration

This November, the Ohio State Highway Patrol will celebrate 85 years of providing public safety services with pride, professionalism, and compassion. The Patrol's reputation as a national leader in law enforcement is a credit to those who have served and those currently serving.

Those who formed the Ohio State Highway Patrol early in the 20th century had a vision that transcended politics, showed compassion and sincerity, and promoted the safety and welfare of Ohioans. The same words can be spoken of the organization today. The men and women of the Patrol have been — and continue to be — driven individuals who are devoted to the service of others. Because of this unwavering commitment to service and the character and values displayed throughout our history, the Patrol has earned the respect and trust of society.

To commemorate our 85th anniversary, the Ohio State Highway Patrol Retiree's Association, the Ohio's Troopers Coalition, the Ohio State Highway Patrol Federal Credit Union and the Ohio State Highway Patrol Auxiliary will host a celebration at the Hyatt Regency Downtown in Columbus on November 10, 2018.

I cordially invite all Patrol family and friends, past and present, to join us for an evening of comradery and fellowship. Please plan to attend, more information will be forthcoming and posted to the 85th anniversary page on our website. <http://www.statepatrol.ohio.gov/85/index.html>
