Fremont woman arrested for Illegal Drug Conveyance at Lebanon Correctional Institution

LEBANON- A Fremont woman will appear in Lebanon Municipal Court today after Ohio State Highway Patrol troopers arrested her yesterday for conveying drugs into the Lebanon Correctional Institution.

Troopers charged Nicole Salazar, 28, with conveying drugs onto the grounds of a detention facility, a third-degree felony.

Troopers and Department of Rehabilitation and Correction investigators obtained information that Salazar would be conveying drugs to an inmate during a scheduled visit. Salazar was arrested yesterday after she surrendered five balloons and a nickel roll containing vegetation suspected to be Marijuana concealed in her underwear.

Salazar was incarcerated in the Warren County Jail. If convicted, she could face up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol investigates criminal activity on state-owned and leased property.
