Sergeant Blosser to serve as Patrol spokesperson

COLUMBUS- Sergeant Darrin L. Blosser of the Ohio State Highway Patrol's Lancaster Post has transferred to the Public Affairs Unit as part of a 90-day program, in which he will temporarily serve as a spokesperson for the Patrol.

Sgt. Blosser joined the Patrol in January 1990 as a member of the 119th Academy Class. He was commissioned that June and assigned to the Circleville Post, where in 1993 he was named Post Trooper of the Year by his peers. In October 1994 he transferred to the Lancaster Post, where in 1995 and 1996 he was again named Post Trooper of the Year by his peers.

In December 1997 he was promoted to the rank of sergeant and transferred to the Marietta Post to serve as an assistant post commander. In September 1999 he transferred back to the Lancaster Post.

Originally of Crooksville, Sgt. Blosser currently resides in Somerset with his wife, Susan, and their two children.
